If you make the following additions and deletions, your January 1, 1985 Certified Products Directory, will be correct as of July 1, 1985.

Note: Some safety glazing may still have a certification logo containing the designation ANSI Z97.1-1975. However, all certified safety glazing contained in the Certified Products Directory since January 1, 1985 have been and are being tested to ANSI Z97.1-1984.
